Investment Opportunity

CURRENT MARKET FAVORS DISCRETIONARY CAPITAL

CrossCurrent launches at an optimal inflection point as multifamily asset values are deflated due to:

- Record new deliveries from 2021 – 2022 bubble
- Operational issues and capital structure distress caused by sub-par operators who entered during the 2021 – 2022 bubble
- Current owner / investor fatigue; requirements to recycle capital

This convergence creates an opportunityy for a specialized operator with discretionary capital to maximize returns by pursuing deep-value quality assets.

ADVANTAGEOUS MARKET POSITION

CrossCurrent's complete capitalization capability creates a decisive competitive advantage: sellers of existing assets can confidently choose CrossCurrent. CrossCurrent can provide execution certainty to the market which will yield superior acquisition opportunities from owners and operators who want certainty of execution.

Market Landscape

Market Opportunity

INTRODUCTION

Over the past decade, U.S. multifamily has been among the most sought-after sectors by investors due to its necessity characteristics, the underlying strength of property-level fundamentals, and high historical risk-adjusted returns. Well-located, high-quality rental housing will continue to be a strong performer over the long term due to a variety of macro, demographic and financial factors. However, asset value are depressed for several reasons, leading to an exceptional buying opportunity.

NATIONAL HOUSING FUNDAMENTALS

- Rent growth has been stubborn despite declining supply and record absorption
- New construction starts and supply dropping rapidly

TARGET MARKETS

- Texas and Sunbelt regions dominate national housing demand story
- Renting remains significantly more cost-effective than homeownership

DEMOGRAPHIC & ECONOMIC DRIVERS

- Employment growth in the Sunbelt significantly outperform other US regions
- Resultant population growth drives secular demand for all types of housing

CURRENT MULTIFAMILY INVESTMENT THESIS – DEPRESSED VALUES

- Existing asset valuations are depressed due to:
  - Investor / owner fatigue leading to forced sales to recycle capital
  - Operational and capital structure issues due to poor sponsorship (COVID hangover)

US Housing Shortages

& RENTAL DEMAND DRIVERS

NATIONAL HOUSING SHORTAGE AND HOMEOWNERSHIP DECLINE

The US faces a persistent housing supply shortage of 3 – 5 million units, with demand consistently outpacing new construction. Despite record multifamily deliveries in 2024, this structural imbalance creates sustained rental demand and supports continued occupancy growth across major markets.

95%	National Occupancy Despite Near-historic New Supply Volumes
50-year	Vacancy Rates Near 50-year Lows
Record	Construction Levels Insufficient to Meet Underlying Demand

STRUCTURAL HOUSING SHORTAGE PERSISTS DESPITE RECORD CONSTRUCTION

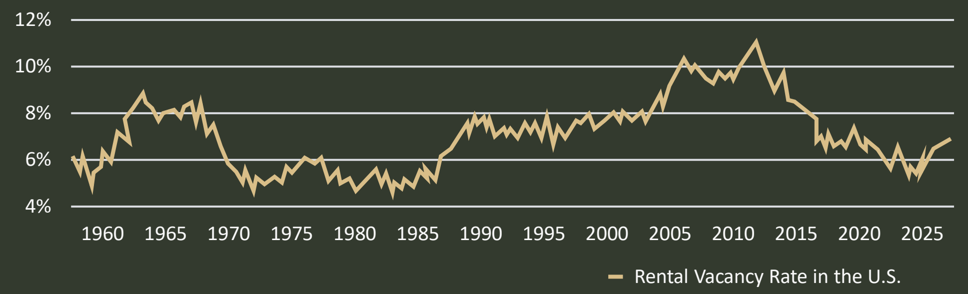
RENTAL VACANCY RATES NEAR HISTORIC LOWS SIGNAL MARKET TIGHTNESS

Vacancy Rates Drop to Multi-Decade Lows Outside Recession Periods



National rental vacancy rates have declined dramatically from the 11% peak during the financial crisis to approximately 6.5% – 7% currently - near historic lows outside of recession periods.

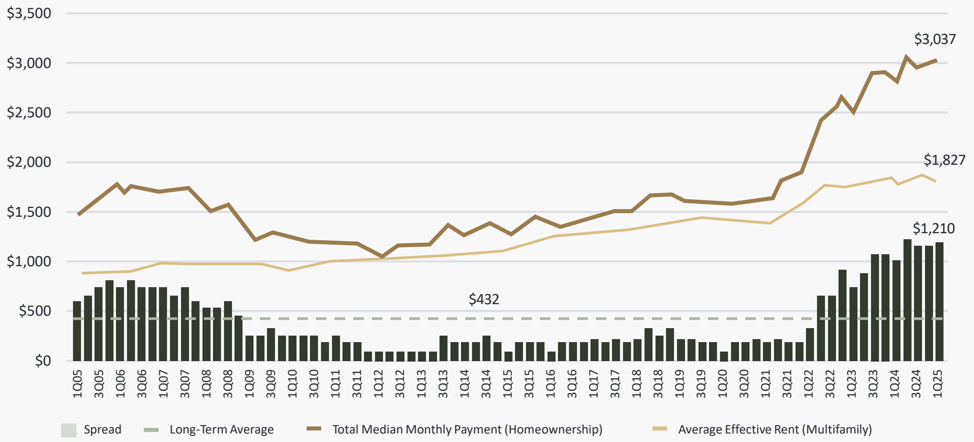
Multifamily Fundamentals

The multifamily sector presents a compelling investment opportunity as market dynamics shift decisively in favor of rental housing, creating sustained demand and improving pricing power.

RENTING REMAINS SIGNIFICANTLY MORE COST-EFFECTIVE THAN HOMEOWNERSHIP



Substantial cost advantage of renting versus homeownership persists, supporting sustained rental demand. Affordability gap expansion reinforces long-term retention and reduces competitive pressure from for-sale housing markets in target demographics.

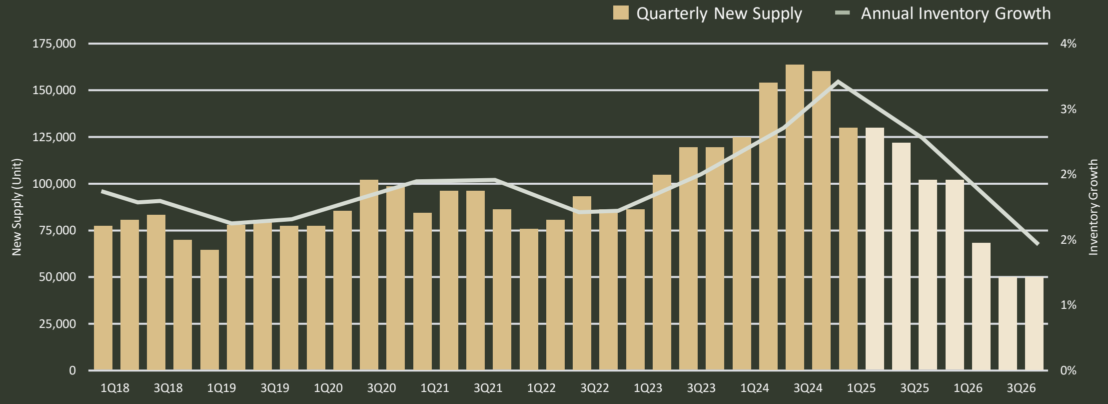
SUPPLY MODERATION EXPECTED AS CONSTRUCTION STARTS DECLINE

Multifamily Unit Supply by Quarter



The multifamily construction pipeline shows evidence of supply moderation ahead, with construction starts declining from peak levels. This supply deceleration, combined with sustained absorption trends, sets up improved supply-demand dynamics for rent growth acceleration in the coming years.

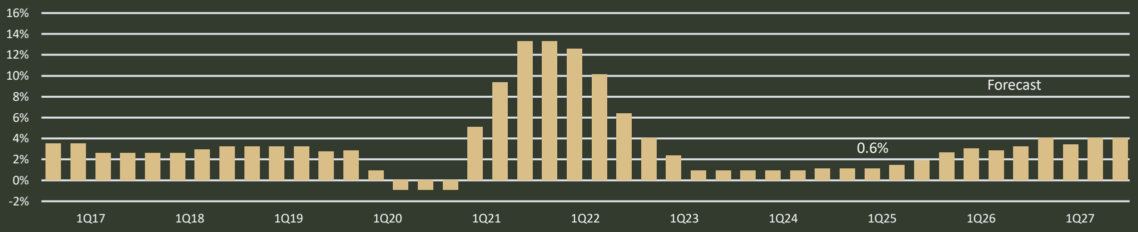
RENT GROWTH EXPECTED IN THE COMING QUARTERS

Effective Rent Growth (YoY)



Rent growth has bottomed and is projected to accelerate meaningfully from 0.6% currently to stronger positive growth through 2027.

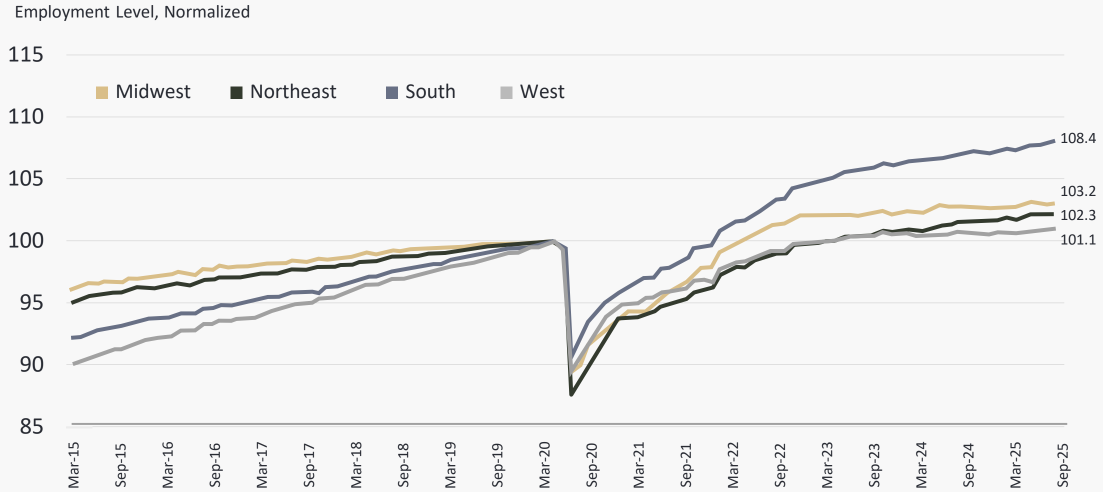
Texas & Sunbelt

MARKETS SHOW DISPROPORTIONATE GROWTH

The Texas Triangle and Sunbelt markets demonstrate exceptional demographic and economic fundamentals that support CrossCurrent's investment strategy. Texas leads national population growth while the Sunbelt region shows sustained employment recovery.

EMPLOYMENT BY CENSUS REGION RECOVERY TRENDS



The South region demonstrates the strongest employment recovery trajectory, significantly outperforming Midwest, Northeast, and West regions since 2020, indicating robust economic fundamentals supporting commercial real estate demand in the projected target markets.

Combined with strong Sunbelt performance in Phoenix, Atlanta, Charlotte, and Raleigh/Durham, these markets represent exceptional rental demand fundamentals that align directly with CrossCurrent's geographic focus.
